In Memoriam

"Don't worry, you've got this!"

To The Class of 2013,

As you get ready to move on, no matter the direction, to college, to joining the military, or entering the workforce, remember this:

It's your world. It's your time.

There will be occasions when you feel overwhelmed and confused. Just remember, you cannot change the past. You can however, contribute to improving the future for all of us. Work hard. Be passionate about what you do. When you are faced with a challenge, hear Jordan say to you "don't worry, you've got this."

Be kind to one another. You never know if those words you just spoke to someone will be the last.

Be proud of who you are and what you have already accomplished. You have only just begun.

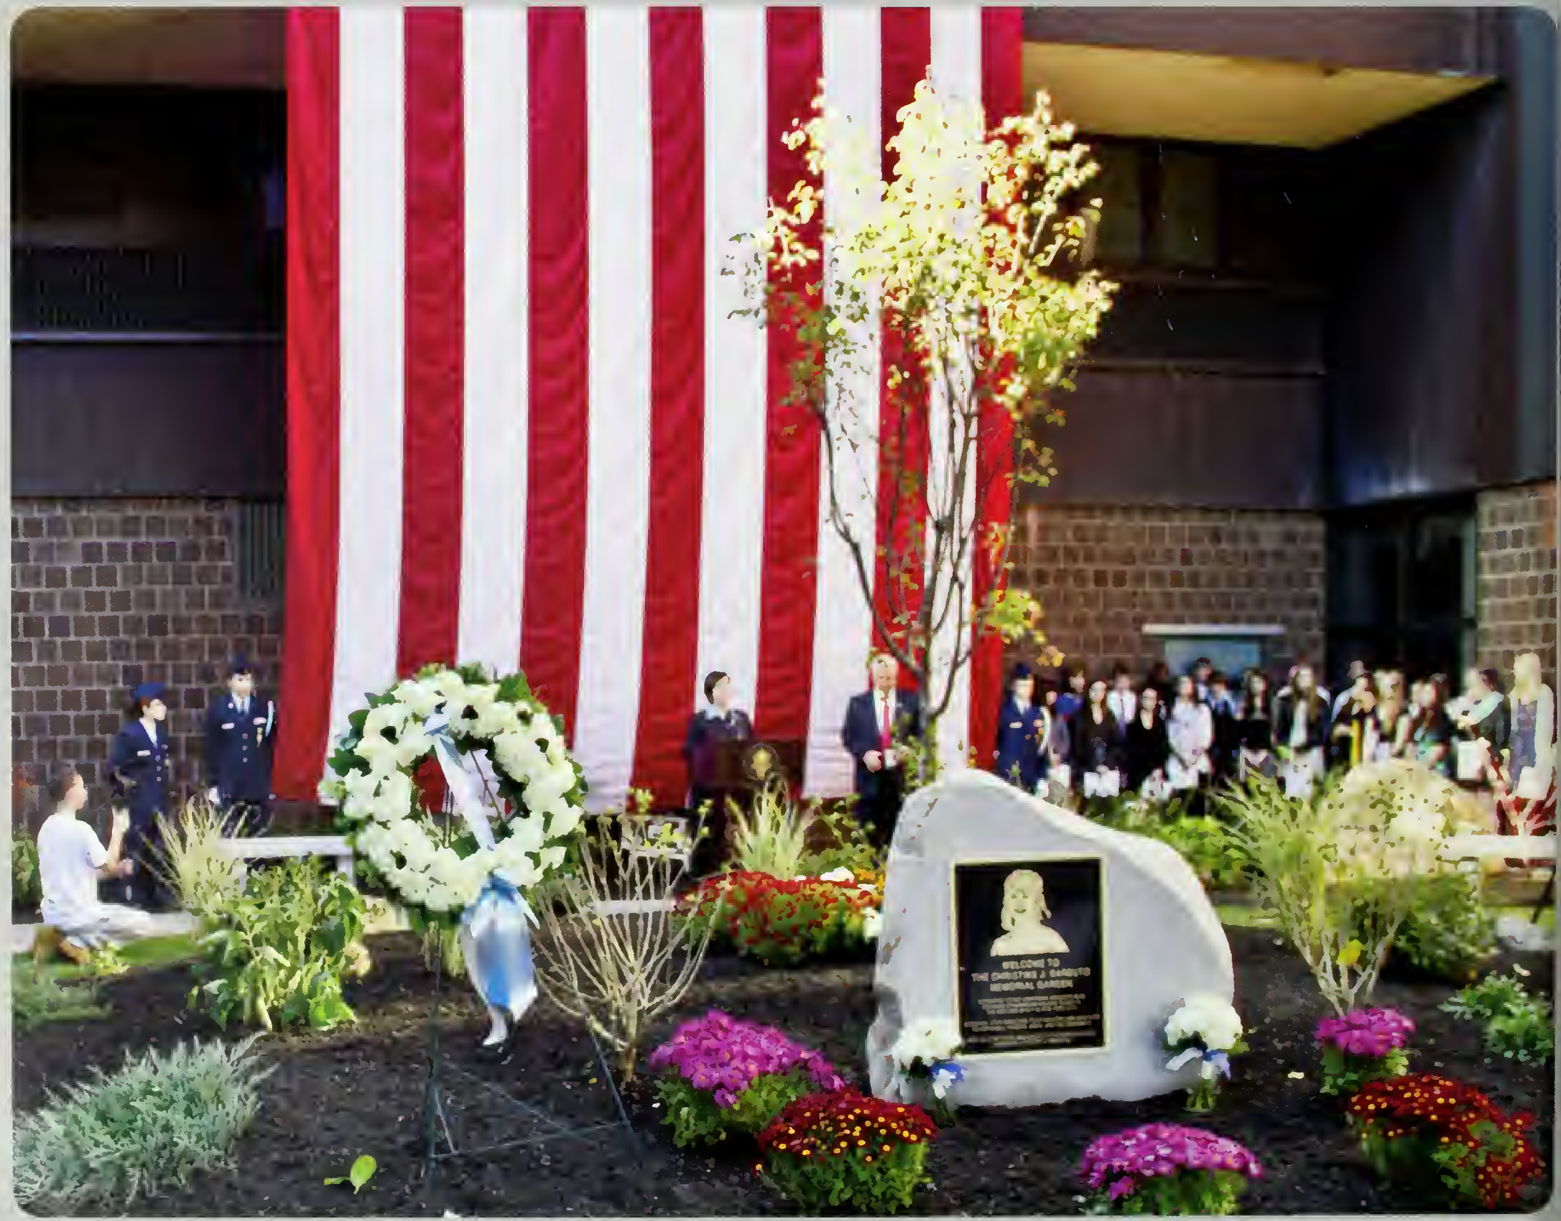
Elaine, Mike, Ashlee and Justin DePrisco

Dedication

Christine Barbuto was a member of the Peabody Veterans Memorial High School Class of 1986. Christine, who was a TJX employee, died on Flight 11 with her colleagues on September 11, 2001.

Christine was a vibrant, personable and committed young woman, involved in her school, her family, her work and her community.

This courtyard was dedicated to keep Christine's spirt alive on October 25, 2012.



"Let's get it on!"

The big day has finally arrived for the Class of 2013. Graduating from Peabody Veterans Memorial High School is an outstanding accomplishment. As you progress through life, you will realize that the journey is not always a straight line. However, to be successful it is necessary to keep the slope of that line consistently trending upward in a postive direction. The lessons and experiences you have enjoyed throughout your high school career were purposely planned to send you in that positive direction. In the future, I encourage you to continue acquiring knowledge and to always strive to achieve to your greatest potential. On behalf of the teachers and staff, I wish you good luck and good health. When you reflect upon your time spent at PVMHS, I hope you will "Always be proud to be a Tanner."

Sincerely,
